"Universalists are often asked to tell where they stand. The only true answer to give to this question is that we do not stand at all. . . we move."

You might be a UU if . . .

you have ever been in an argument over whether or not breast milk is vegan.

when you dress for a formal evening out you wear a little black dress, pearls—and Birkenstocks (and your wife thinks you look great!)

you are unsure about the gender of God.

you own six pairs of Birkenstocks and your favorite pair needs to be thrown away.

you get Newt Gingrich confused with the Grinch who Stole Christmas.

the money you sent to the Sierra Club last year was more than you spent on your mother at Christmas.

you think the Holy Trinity is "reduce, reuse and recycle."

you study the "ten suggestions" instead of the "Ten Commandments."

the only time "Jesus" is mentioned at church is when someone trips or stubs a toe.

your child says to you before eating dinner at a friend's house "I'll remember to say my 'pleases' and 'thank yous' but I'm not going to say that dinner 'pledge of allegiance'."

You think a Holy day of Obligation is your turn to do coffee.

You get mail from committees you didn't know you were on.

You know at least two people who are upset that trees had to die for your church to be built.

Unitarian Humor

Three children were talking about their religions.

"I'm a Catholic," said one, "And our symbol is the cross."

"I'm Jewish," said the second, "And our symbol is the Star of David."

The third child said, "I'm a Unitarian Universalist and our symbol is a candle in a cocktail glass!"

-Beliefnet.com

Q: Why did the Unitarian-Universalist cross the road?

A: To support the chicken in its search for its own path

Person A (Mainstream Protestant Denomination): I hear that you allow all sorts of weirdos in your church. Atheists, Buddhists, Pagans...

Person B (Unitarian Universalist): We allow Christians too — we're very open minded!

Words of Wisdom

I think that one of our most important tasks is to convince others that there's nothing to fear in difference; that difference, in fact, is one of the healthiest and most invigorating of human characteristics without which life would become meaningless. Here lies the power of the liberal way: not in making the whole world Unitarian [Universalist], but in helping ourselves and others to see some of the possibilities inherent in viewpoints other than one's own; in encouraging the free interchange of ideas; in welcoming fresh approaches to the problems of life; in urging the fullest, most vigorous use of critical self-examination.

—Adlai Stevenson

Sustainability is another word for justice, for what is just is sustainable and what is unjust is not.

—Matthew Fox

We travel together, passengers in a little spaceship, . . . Preserved from annihilation only by the care, the work, and, I will say, the love we give our fragile craft.

—Adlai Stevenson

*"We can easily forgive a child who is afraid of the dark;
the real tragedy of life is when men are afraid of the light."*

— Plato
